Enrollment in this course by invitation. It is a privilege to be able to serve off campus twice a cycle. Student who complete this application AND are accepted may not enroll in any X period course, no exceptions. As the master schedule is created during the spring, some students may have to make a decision as to which class they will enroll in should there be a scheduling conflict. In addition, the number of supervised, off-campus service internships is limited; therefore the number of students accepted into this course is also limited. Decisions regarding enrollment will be made by the chairs of the Theology Department, with preference given to those who have demonstrated a sincere commitment to service, and who have exemplified maturity and responsibility. Please understand that if accepted into this course, students must be willing to serve at whatever service site they are needed.
